EMERY-PRATT ANNOUNCES NEW EBOOK VENDORS

November 19, 2012 - Owosso, MI - Emery-Pratt Company is happy to announce two new partnerships providing added options for ebook availability. Effective December 3rd, 2012, customers will be able to select titles from EBL and MyiLibrary, in addition to what is currently available from ebrary. This will give libraries the ability to select from more than one million ebook titles along with the more than 9 million in-print and in-stock titles available at emery-pratt.com

“These new vendor options will give our customers greater flexibility in ordering with the addition of thousands of new titles. This will also allow them to streamline their ordering to one central location at emery-pratt.com,” commented Byron Shattuck, Sales Manager with Emery-Pratt.

Along with this improvement, other key features and benefits of emery-pratt.com include:

- In-Print database of more than 9 million in-print titles
- ebook database of more than 1,000,000 titles
- 24/7 access to your order status
- New Title Selection Plan
- Duplicate Order Alert
- Order tracking
- MARC Order Records

Emery-Pratt Company is continually working to make emery-pratt.com more efficient for customers to order materials needed for their collections.
